Date: 20.11.2020

Circular No.25 /AA - 2020-21

In view of the worsening situation in and around Ahmedabad and Gandhinagar due to increased Covid-19 infections, all students are herewith directed not to travel to the university from their current locations. The university hostels and its allied services are not in operation and demand of any students who come and insist on accommodation there will not be entertained. Specific instructions in this regard will be issued by the university authorities as and when the situation improves. Until then, entry of students in the university hostels is strictly forbidden in the interest of their health and safety.

These instructions are issued with the approval of competent authority.
